The more common combat mechanics are simple. While three blocks away or closer to an animal, monster, or other player, the player can attack that entity by clicking the attack button while their cursor is over the entity. Clicking speed does not affect the combat, instead, a player's skill in combat is based more off of their hit accuracy.

For the purposes of melee combat, you can use anything - ranging from empty hands to the sword. Empty hands, just like in the case of harmless items, deal little damage. When you use weapons with a handle, (axe, pickaxe, sword etc.) you can review damage modifiers by rolling over the weapon icon in the inventory.
